

Teresa Kirkhart

Director, Professional Development & Standards, Dulles Area Association of REALTORS®

Teresa has worked in associations for the past 20 years. She started her professional development career in 2006 at the Prince William Association of REALTORS®. While there she grew course offerings from 50 to 212 per year. She brought back the Broker Pre-licensing to the association and had great success.

In January 2013, Teresa filled the position of Business Development Director at the Dulles Area Association. In May 2015 she moved into the vacant position of Professional Development where her passion lies. She loves working with the REALTORS® to help achieve their career goals through educational offerings and coaching.

She is a native of the Northern Virginia area and now resides in Manassas.
