Christine Corrado Windle
Chief Executive Officer, Dulles Area Association of REALTORS®

Christine Corrado Windle is the Chief Executive Officer for the Dulles Area Association of REALTORS® (DAAR) representing over 1,500 REALTOR® and affiliate members in the Loudoun County area. Founded in 1962, DAAR works to safe guard and advance the mutual interests of the public, property owners, and real estate professionals on real estate-related matters.

Prior to this appointment, she served as DAAR's Director of Public Policy and Communications for ten years where she focused on the development and implementation of the Association's government affairs, public relations and communications programs.

Prior to joining DAAR, she was the Community Development Policy Representative at the National Association of REALTORS®, where she served as the primary staff for NAR's Smart Growth Presidential Advisory Group and Housing Needs Committee.

Before joining NAR, she was the Program Director for Federal Affairs at the American Institute of Architects (AIA) where she worked with hundreds of Architects, gaining valuable insight into environment, sustainable design and livable community issues of interest.

Other positions held include the chief lobbyist for the National Society of Professional Engineers and Congressional Intern for The Honorable Steny Hoyer (D-MD).

Christine earned her Master of Public Administration (MPA) from George Mason University, Fairfax, VA and Bachelor of Arts, Political Science/Economics from the University of Maryland, College Park.

Christine is very active in her home-town community of Loudoun County where she serves on the Loudoun County Government's Housing Advisory Board, Vice Chairman of the Loudoun Valley High School Parent Teacher Organization and active volunteer with her son's travel soccer programs.

She lives in Purcellville with her husband Charlie and two sons Charlie Jr.
